Carolina Pink-Root,

AN Article in conſiderable Eſteem from its efficacy in deſtroying Worms, is frequently, by Mercenary Perſons employ'd to collect it, mixed with other Herbs ſtrongly reſembling in Appearance the true Sort, but of quite different Properties and Effects, whence thoſe alarming Fits, Convulſions, &c. which often attend the uſe of it with Children.

To guard againſt ſuch Deception, and Conſequences, I have, thro' the Aſſiſtance of a Friend, well ſkilled in Botany, procur'd a Quantity that can be warranted as the genuine Plant.——To be Sold at my Store nearly Oppoſite the Coenties Market, which is conſtantly ſupplied with the beſt of Drugs and Medicines, and where Country and Sea Orders are punctually executed, Phyſician's and Family Preſcriptions faithfully prepared and the Favours properly acknowledged.

☞ The Subſcriber has to ſell, an excellent fine double key'd HARPSICHORD, quite new, which coſt Fifty Guines in London—The loweſt Price fixed is Thirty Guineas—if not ſold in about a Month, it will be ſhipp'd, and ſent out of the Province.

WATCHES,

HORIZONTAL, REPEATING, or PLAIN;

CLOCKS,

ASTRONOMICAL, Muſical or Plain, with Weights, or Springs, repaired, as cheap as by any Perſon in this City, by JAMES YEOMAN, (at the Sign of the White Dial, nearly oppoſite the Merchant's Coffee-Houſe) who received his Inſtructions in the Buſineſs from the ingenious Mr. Neale, (whoſe great Knowledge in Mechanics was well known) he can with Propriety declare himſelf a real Manufacturer, having had the Government of a large Manufactory from its Infancy to its Maturity, one Hundred Miles from London.

The above is not the Reſult of Vanity or Parade, for, ſhould it be doubted, proper Teſtimonials ſhall be produced to prove the Aſſertion;——As it is the ſole Wiſh of the ſaid James Yeoman, to obtain Favours only proportioned to the Knowledge he has, and the Satisfaction he affords in his Buſineſs,—on thoſe Foundations he ſubmits his Reputation, as an Artificer, to the Judgment of the Impartial.

WANTS A PLACE,

A Wet Nurſe, with a new Breaſt of Milk, who can be well recommended: For further Particulars, inquire of the Printer. 20 26

To be ſold, by the Subſcribers,

THE Farm or Plantation lately belonging to the eſtate of Mr. Andrew Van Horn, deceaſed, in Piſcataway, in the county of Middleſex, containing about one hundred and twenty acres of upland and meadow, whereon is a good and convenient dwelling houſe, a ſtable, and out-houſes, a good orchard, and garden, pleaſantly ſituated on the north ſide of Rariton-river, about two miles below New-Brunſwick; very ſuitable for a ſtore, having a good landing place, and a good wharf.—Its pleaſant ſituation, proper diſtance from New-Brunſwick, and the rear of the land bounding on the poſt road, renders it a convenient retreat, for a gentleman of fortune, retiring from buſineſs.——For further particulars, inquire of Courtland Skinner, Eſq; or Philip Kearney, jun. in Perth-Amboy.

To the ADVENTURERS in the

NEW-CASTLE LOTTERY,

GENTLEMEN,

THE Severity of the Winter having ſtopt the Communication with ſeveral Places in this and the neighbouring Colonies, to which Tickets of the New-Caſtle Lottery have been ſent for Sale, and made travelling to ſuch Places difficult, and conſequently leſs frequent than uſual; ſo that Information could not be had of the Fate of the Tickets ſent to thoſe Places, in Time to be ready to draw that Lottery at the Time fixed. Theſe Impediments will ſoon be removed, and 'tis hoped they will apologize to you for poſtponing the Drawing to the TWENTY-THIRD DAY OF MARCH NEXT, when you may be aſſured the Drawing ſhall abſolutely begin, and continue every Day (Sundays excepted) till the Whole be completed. All Perſons who have Tickets of that Lottery to ſell, except thoſe who reſide in New-Caſtle, are hereby deſired to ſend the Tickets unſold, (if any they have) without Loſs of Time, by Poſt, or ſome other ſafe Conveyance, to the Perſons from whom they received thoſe Tickets: In Default thereof, they will be conſidered as ſold. They are alſo deſired to take the Numbers of the Tickets that may be returned, to prevent the bad Conſequences of a Miſcarriage. There are but 135 Tickets of that Lottery unſold in this City; therefore ſuch as intend to become Adventurers, are deſired to apply in Time, as the Sale is very rapid. 22 25

New-York, Feb. 29, 1772.

TO BE SOLD,

On the Manor of Courtlandt,

THE following lots of land in ſaid manor being parts of the lot No. 3, whereon Hendrick and William Lent lived, and are now laid out in the following manner, Lot No. 1 adjoins to Hudſon's River, and the public road that leads to Albany, containing 211 acres, has a good ſtream for mills of any ſort, and is well ſupplied with timber Lot No. 2 contains 103 acres of choice land, and fronts the Eaſt ſide of the before-mentioned road. Lot No. 3 binds upon ſaid road, to the Eaſtward of lot No. 2, is equally good, and contains 100 acres and three rods. Lot No. 4 contains 103 acres, and lies in the rear of the before mentioned lots. Lot No. 5 contains 103 acres, and lies in the rear of lot No. 4 Lot No. 6 contains 103 acres, and lies in the rear of the Lot No. 5. Lot No. 7 contains 103 acres, and lies in the rear of Lot No. 6, Lot No. 8 contains 103 acres, and lies in the rear of Lot No. 7; this Lot No. 8 has on it a good fall for a mill or mills. Lot No. 9 contains 109 acres, and lies on the rear of Lot No. 8. Lot No. 10 contains 121 acres, and lies in the rear of lot No. 9. All the before mentioned lots, are good land and well timbered, and very conveniently ſituated near the north-river; a plan of the lots as they are here mentioned, may be ſeen by applying to Pier Van Courtlandt Eſq; living on ſaid manor, or to William Bayard, living at Greenwich, or Nicholas Bayard in Bowry Lane, who will inform them of the condition of ſale and give a good title to ſuch as chooſe to purchaſe. 23 26

WILLIAM BAYARD,
NICHOLAS BAYARD

N. B. A plan of the above lots may likewiſe be ſeen in the hands of Doctor Graham, at the White Plains, and Doctor Haviland at Rye.

INOCULATION.

THE Subſcriber begs Leave to inform the Public, that he has opened a very convenient Houſe in a remote, tho' pleaſant Situation, within three miles of New-Brunſwick for the Reception of ſuch Perſons as propoſe taking the Small-Pox by Inoculation. The beſt Attendance will be given, and every Thing proper for their Accommodation ſhall be furniſhed, at a very low and eaſy Rate.

MANY are detered from being incoculated, on Account of ſore Arms, Boils and large Abſceſſes, often attending the common Method of treating the Diſeaſe, but more particularly from the ill Effects of the too free and indiſcriminate Uſe of Mercury, by which, many (tho' they recover of the Small-Pox, yet the Conſtitution being injured,) ſoon fall Victims to ſome other Malady.

ALL theſe Inconveniences are avoided by a particular Method of preparing the Patient, the moſt efficacious and the leaſt detrimental to the Conſtitution, by the Manner of conveying the Infection, and by the ſubſequent Treatment of the Diſeaſe, without the leaſt Confinement; the Advantages of which have been fully and clearly demonſtrated in upwards of 400 Perſons under the Subſcriber's Care, in the ſpace of a few Months, laſt Winter and Spring, without the Misfortune of loſing any; nor has there died more than one of that Number ſince, which plainly ſhews the ſingular Advantages of this Method.

A ſufficient Number to make it worth his While, in any Part of the Country not contiguous to a Perſon properly qualified, (I don't mean authorized) ſhall be waited on, at a ſhort Notice, by the Publick's

Moſt obedient humble Servant,

NEW-BRUNSWICK, December 12, 1771. JOHN COCHRAN. 19—

LONDON, December 13.

ON the 3d inſtant the poll for a member for the city of Dublin, in the room of the late Doctor Lucas, concluded, and ſtood as follows; for Doctor Clement one thouſand five hundred and twenty one, for Alderman Geale one thouſand and ſeventy nine, whereupon Doctor Clement was declared duly elected. The temperate manner in which this Election was conducted reflects the higheſt honour on the citizens of Dublin, who determined not to put their favourite Candidate to any Expenſe on their account.

A Diſcovery has been made at Paris, by a nurſe on her death bed, which has occaſioned an order to be made to forbid any perſon's giving ſurgeons, midwives, or nurſes, fees at the death of their patients. The wicked wretch has declared that ſhe has deſtroyed upwards of forty ladies for the ſake of the perquiſites of linen, &c.

Lord Baltimore's perſonal property is eſtimated at above one hundred thouſand pounds, and the two natural children whom he has left are remarkably accompliſhed for their time of life; the ſon is a moſt amiable boy of fourteen, and the daughter a moſt beautiful girl of about twelve years.

"As for the new party that is forming itſelf with inconceivable facility (ſays a correſpondent) I cannot but ſay, there is very ſufficient foundation. One good turn deſerves another; Col. Luttrell did all the dirty work government had the modeſty to require of him, yet you ſee how much more forcible the operations of pride are to thoſe of gratitude, and his ſiſter is not to be acknowledged for what his Sovereign's brother has had the generoſity to make her. It is a little remarkable, that theſe men, who are ſuch happy time-ſervers, ſhould grow into ſuch inſtantaneous importance. Lord Bute, on his firſt introduction, was neither better nor worſe, than a ſtop gap Governor: To what diginities has not he arrived!—In like manner, our ſtop-gap Repreſentative has contrived to advance himſelf until there is but one ſtep higher for him to climb: The King's brother is only one remove from——."

It was Miſs Flood, ſiſter to the Iriſh patriot of that name, and not an Italian Lady, as mention lately in the papers, to whom the D—of Y——was married.

Miſs Flood, who is at preſent ſtiled, by her friends and intimate acequaintance, D——ſs of Y—k, has been preſſed by the K—g's friends to marry, accompained with a promiſe of beſtowing a very lucrative employment on whomſoever ſhe may chooſe to honour with her hand.

Dec. 21. A great puſh it is ſaid, will be made for the diſſolution of a late marriage, notwithſtanding the firſt lawyers in the kingdom have pronounced in favour of its validity: however we have had certain proof that a H—e of C——s can do what they pleaſe with this country, for an example of which we need not look farther back than the Middleſex election.

Yeſterday a gentleman at the change laid five guineas to one, that preſs warrants would be iſſued within a fortnight.

Orders are ſent to Scotland to raiſe immediately a number of men for his Majeſty's ſervice, who are to be ſent abroad, but to what part is not known.

The powder-mills within twenty miles of London have had orders to work on Sundays.

Two remarkable inſtances of good fortune are told of Mr. Joſhua Mendez, an eminent broker in the city: In a former lottery, he had two five thouſand pound prizes in one day; and in the preſent, one day brought him a two thouſand pound prize in the Engliſh, and another a two thouſand pound prize in the Iriſh lottery.

Dec. 10. It is aſſerted that the violent anger againſt the Duke of Cumberland, and the excommunication under which he now lies is only a ſtate farce, and that all matters are cleared up.

It is ſaid that a Great Perſonage has ſignified his diſapprobation of the intention of the Eccleſiaſtical petitioners.

A very conſiderable bett is laid, that the vote of the Iriſh commons, declaring the penſion granted to Jeremiah Dyſon burthenſome and uneceſſary, will be declared null and void in England.

This day, about four in the afternoon, the ſittings before Lord Mansfield ended in Weſtminſter Hall. In the courſe of theſe, ſixty-ſeven cauſes were tried, and three compromiſed; of the former, were ſix for criminal converſation.

By the late inundation in the North, the town of Yarm, in the county of Durham, has ſuffered moſt ſeverely. The gentlemen are quitting it for ever, and thoſe in trade ſeem at preſent to be in ſome degree doubtful whether they ſhall rebuild and repair, or pitch their tents in ſome ſafer ſituation.

The Iriſh Parliament have no poſitive right to ſtrike off ſuch penſions as are granted by the King's letters on the revenues of that nation, but they have a power nearly equal, which is to raiſe no more money than they think proper; and this they will certainly exerciſe on the preſent occaſion, to the great mortification of government.

Lord Baltimore's Will came over laſt Monday from Italy. His Lordſhip has appointed Hugh Hammerſley, Robert Eden, Robert Morris, of Lincoln's Inn, Barriſter, and Peter Provoſt, Eſquires, truſtees and executors, with an annuity to each, of 1000l. for life, and 1500l. to be divided among them; and he has bequeathed to Sophia Hales, and Elizabeth Hales, infants, daughter of Elizabeth Dawſon, Spinſter, 2000l. each, and 1000l. to their mother; to Charlotte Hope, daughter of Elizabeth Hope, 2000l. to his ſiſters, Caroline Eden, and Louiſa Browning, 10,000l. each; to Henry Herford, ſon of Heſter Rhelan, of the age of 14, his province of Maryland, and all his real and perſonal eſtates, at the age of 21; and in caſe of his death before 21, to his ſiſter, Frances Mary Herford, 30,000l. and to the ſaid Heſter Rhelan an annuity of 200l. a year for life.

The expence attending the equipment of the navy, the increaſe of our land forces, together with all the various preparations for a war with Spain, amounts, we are aſſured, to three millions ſterling; and the value of Falkland Iſlands is eſtimated at about five ſhillings of American currency.

A great man, ſpeaking on the affair of Falkland Iſland laſt Sunday, at St. James's, obſerved, that now the people had got the favourite rock again into their poſſeſſion, it was ten to one but they grumbled at the expences attending the recovery, and exclaimed againſt the government for increaſing the national debt, to obtain an object ſo notoriouſly inconſiderable.

Though the Iriſh Houſe of Commons have voted the ſupplies demanded by government, they have voted them upon a new principle, and given Adminiſtration very little occaſion for rejoicing. Formerly, when the Parliament of Ireland granted an aid, they laid a duty upon ſome particular branch of trade, and appropriated the whole revenues to his Majeſty's uſe. In ſuch appropriations, care was always taken that the duty brought in much more than was required for the oſtenſible expenditure which it was to defray; and the Crown by this means, got a large ſurplus upon all the revenues, to gratify the avarice of Penſioners. The miſapplication of public money, however, is now at an end; a ſpecifick ſum being given to his Majeſty for national purpoſes, ſubject to parliamentary control, and dangerous to be proſtituted in the arts of venality.

Yeſterday was tried, in the court of common pleas, a cauſe, wherein a Dutchman was Plantiff, and the Colonel of a Britiſh regiment Defendant. The action was brought for hay, ſtraw, and oats, furniſhed by the former to the latter in the courſe of laſt war, and was laid at three thouſand five hundred pounds. The defence was, that the Britiſh officer acted only for government, and conſequently was not liable. The court ſeemed to be of that opinion; but the Jury thought otherwiſe, and in about four minutes returned a verdict for the plaintiff, with two thouſand pounds damages.

WILLIAMSBURG, in Virginia, February 20.

Extract from the JOURNAL of the Honourable HOUSE of BURGESSES.

TUESDAY, February 18.

MR. treaſurer acquainted the Houſe that he had a meſſage from the Governor to this houſe, ſigned by his Excellency, and he preſented the ſame to the Houſe, and it was read by Mr. ſpeaker, and is as follows, viz.

Gentlemen,

I HAVE thought proper to lay before you a liſt of the fees, which I found had been uſually paid to the Clerks of my predeceſſors in this government, but which has been objected to in one inſtance ſince I have taken the adminiſtration upon me. In order, therefore, to give the people over whom I have the honour to preſide the cleareſt proof of the uprightneſs of my own intentions, and to let them ſee my readineſs to remove, as ſoon as I can diſcover it, every poſſibility of a diſpute between me and thoſe whoſe affection I would gladly conciliate, I deſire you will take the ſaid liſt of fees under your conſideration; and, as I ſuppoſe, if they appear to be juſt and reaſonable to you, upon compariſon of them with what is the practice in ſimilar caſes, in all other governments, that you will have no objections to the eſtabliſhing of them by law; ſo on my part, if you judge otherwiſe of them, I ſhall not heſitate at conſenting to aboliſh them all, or in part, exactly as you ſhall think proper to propoſe.

DUNMORE.

The liſt mentioned in the ſaid Meſſage is as followeth, viz

Reſolved, That this Houſe will, upon Thurſday next, reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take into conſideration the Governor's meſſage, and the liſt of fees therein mentioned.

The Juſtitia, Captain Gillies is arrived in Rappahannock from London in 40 days, with 120 convicts, among whom is JOHN EYRE, Eſq; who, though worth upwards of 30,000l. ſterling was convicted of ſtealing eleven quires of paper.

February 27. The Pomona, Dunlop, belonging to Meſſrs. William Cunninghame and company, of Glaſgow, was lately overſet off Cape Clear, on the coaſt of Ireland; but the crew ſaved themſelves on the bottom of the ſhip, where they remained ſome time until taken up by a man of war, who carried them into Portſmouth. Upon the loſs of this veſſel the ſame Gentlemen freighted the ſhip Margaret, Captain Speirs, and ſent her out, to take in the loading deſigned for the Pomona; but ſhe was forced aſhore in the night of the 15th inſtant, twenty miles to the ſouthward of Cape Henry, and the hull entirely loſt; the crew, with the rigging, anchors and cables, were ſaved.

This day the Honourable the Houſe of Burgeſſes preſented the following Addreſs to his Excellency the Governor, in conſequence of his Meſſage to them reſpecting his Clerk's Fees.

My LORD,

WE, his Majeſty's dutiful ſubjects, humbly beg leave to return your Excellency our unfeigned thanks for your very candid and polite meſſage. It affords us the higheſt pleaſure and ſatisfaction to find your Excellency ſo cordially diſpoſed to cultivate with the country that agreeable harmony which will undoubtedly conciliate to you the affection of his Majeſty's loyal ſubjects of Virginia, and thereby eſtabliſh our mutual happineſs upon the moſt ſolid and permanent foundation. We bear the greateſt reſpect to your Excellency's important and exalted ſtation amongſt us, and think there is a neceſſity for ſupporting the honour and dignity of our Governor; but, my Lord, give us leave, on this occaſion, humbly to repreſent to your Excellency that we conſider the emoluments of government, as by law eſtabliſhed, adequate, and amply ſufficient, for thoſe purpoſes. The fees which appear to have been received by the Clerks of your Excellency's Predeceſſors, or iſſuing commiſſions for the appointment of public officers, and which we are now, for the firſt time, regularly informed of by your Lordſhip's meſſage, are unknown to our laws; and therefore we cannot ſufficiently applaud your Lordſhip's wiſdom and goodneſs in embracing, ſo early, an opportunity of expreſſing your willingneſs, if they ſhould be found diſagreeable to us, as they really are, to have them totally aboliſhed.

To which his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Houſe of Burgeſſes.

I AM obliged to you for your polite Addreſs; and as you are of opinion that the fees received by the Clerks of my predeceſſors, for iſſuing public commiſſions, were illegal, I will not only take care that my Clerk ſhall not in future receive any, but alſo that he ſhall return thoſe which he has received ſince my arrival in this Colony.

PROVIDENCE, February 29.

Wedneſday laſt, the wind blowing very hard at Weſt, a Sloop belonging to Middletown, Buckley, Maſter, homeward bound, was drove out of Connecticut river, both her cables being parted by the Ice. The people were all on ſhore, except the Mate and a boy, who could not prevent her running on the Eaſt end of Saybrook Bar, where ſhe lay near an hour, and then beat over. They afterwards made ſail, intending for Newport, and got ſafe round Point-Judah, when hauling their wind to ſtretch in, the jib ſheet gave way, and ſhe ran on Brenton's Reef, where ſhe beat off her keel, and filled. The wind continuing to blow hard, ſhe beat over the Reef in the night, and ſtruck about 11 or 12 rods from the Beach. The mate held the boy all night in his arms, wraped in a blanket, and in the morning ſwam to ſhore, leaving the boy on the quarter-deck, who being much Froſt bitten, died before any aſſiſtance could be had. The Veſſel was loaded with cocoa and ſalt.

The ſame day a brig from Connecticut river, going to take in horſes at New-London, was drove into the ſound, and lay on her beam-ends 15 minutes. She loſt her long-boat, anchor and cable, and got into Newport.

Three Connecticut ſloops, homeward bound, ſailed on Tueſday from Newport, and put back on Wedneſday evening, with the loſs of ſome of their ſails; the Captain of one of them, who came in ſick, died the ſame night.

By a veſſel arrived at Newport from the Weſt-Indies, we learn, that Capt. William Sole, in a brig from this port, bound for Hiſpaniola, lately put into Antigua, having loſt his maſts, all his horſes, and every thing off deck.

On Thurſday ſe'nnight, a boat going from Newport to Providence, in this colony, was ſeized by an armed ſchooner, for having 3 hogſheads of melaſſes on board—The ſame ſchooner, a ſhort time before, ſeized a ſmall Boat, with 10 or 12 Hogſheads of rum on board, as ſhe was going from Greenwich, in this colony, to Newport—The melaſſes and rum, we are told, had been legally imported, and the duties paid.

NEWPORT, March 2,

Early laſt Wedneſday morning a very extraordinary affair happened in this town, viz. A Negro man named Primus, belonging to Thomas Cranſton, Eſq; having borrowed two dollars of his wife, who lived with Evan Malbone, Eſq; loſt the money at Gaming a few days before; and finding his wife had three dollars more in her trunk, he broke it open and took out the dollars, and two handkerchiefs, which he alſo loſt in like manner. After they had got to bed on Tueſday night, his wife aſked him about the money, and told him ſhe muſt have it again; upon which a quarrel enſued for ſome time. Toward day the fellow got up, and went down into the kitchen, and ſet fire to a partition, carried ſome fire into the garret, where his wife lay, and put it among her clothes, and then got her on the floor, endeavouring to break her neck; upon which ſhe cried out murder and fire! This alarmed the houſe, and Mr. Malbone jumped out of bed, and running into the kitchen with his buckets to get water found it in a blaze; however he happily ſoon extinguiſhed that, and hearing the cry of fire up ſtairs ſtill continue, he told them to leave of hollowing, for the fire was all out; but finding the noiſe did not ceaſe, he took his buckets with water and ran up garret, which he found full of ſmoke, and the Negro fellow ſtill ſtriving to break his wife's neck; but he broke the fellow's hold, and before he had quite executed his deſign, puſhed him down ſtairs, and out of the houſe. Mr. Malbone went up garret again, put out all the fire, and then went and waked Mr. Cranſton, who got up and dreſſed himſelf, to go in ſearch of the Negro; and looking towards the ſtill-houſe, which is near his dwelling-houſe, ſaw one of the windows open; ſo concluding he was there, got the key, and with Mr. Malbone, went and unlocked the door;——where they found every ciſtern opened, and a fire juſt blazing up againſt the rum room, which they extinguiſhed; but looking round, immediately diſcovered another fire breaking out in the wood-room; which they alſo extinguiſhed; and then proceeding to ſhut the ciſterns, found the Negro drowned in one of them.—This Negro fellow had always been an excellent ſervant; and was never known to have any difference with his wife before; but having loſt his own money, and that which he had borrowed and ſtolen, by the pernicious cuſtom of Gaming, too much practiſed by Whites as well as Blacks; 'tis probable he could not bear the thoughts of the reproach, which would be caſt upon him, and to prevent any diſcovery being made by his wife, determined to murder her.

The morning on which this ſcene was acted, the wind blew very high at weſt; and, in all probability, in a quarter of an hour more the fires would have got to ſuch a head, that great part of the ſouth end of the town muſt have been deſtroyed.

PHILADELPHIA March 12

Captain Flyn from Cadiz, but laſt from St. Croix, on the 23d of November, in lat. 28, 48, long. 30, 37, ſpoke the brig Ranger, Captain Shaw, belonging to New-York, bound from Dublin for Antigua, out 28 days, all well.

Capt. Cooke, from Boſton, on the 2d inſt. on the edge of ſoundings, ſpoke a ſchooner, Capt. Hill, from Virginia for Cape-Ann, out 6 days, all well.

As a proof that Pot and Pearl Aſh is in a fair way to become a great article of export from this country, we have procured, and here inſert for the peruſal of our readers, an account of the quantity of Pot and Pearl Aſhes inſpected in the city of New-York in the ſmall ſpace of ten months, viz, from the 25th of April 1771, to the 29th of February 1772.

POT. 13 hogſheads 4205 barrels of firſt, 2 hogſheads 667 barrels of ſecond, and 1 hogſhead 407 barrles of third ſort.

PEARL. 82 hogſheads 467 barrels of firſt, 74 hogſheads 632 barrels of ſecond, and 3 hogſheads 347 barrels of third ſort.

March 16. We hear, that three of the priſoners confined in the gaol of this city, died during the laſt week, and the Coroner's Inqueſt have found that they periſhed through want of neceſſaries. Think of this, ye who diſſipate the bounty of heaven in idle amuſements—who waſte more money in one night's debauch, than would ſupport a little family for a week! Ye who live in affluence, and who are ſtrangers to the calamities of hunger and cold—Oh! forget not to relieve your unhappy fellow creatures from the anguiſh of them both. Theſe poor ſufferers, like Lazarus of old, aſk for nothing but the "Crumbs which fall from your tables." The very refuſe of your kitchens, beds, and wearing apparel, would be received by them with joy and thankfulneſs. We hope the humane part of the inhabitants of this city will guard for the future againſt accidents of the like nature, and thus wipe off the diſhonour which the above melancholy cataſtrophe has done not only to Chriſtianity but to humanity. The inclemency of the preſent ſeaſon ſtill calls upon the public to afford relief to numbers who are now under confinement, and in great diſtreſs in our gaol.

During the laſt week, there fell ſo large a quantity of ſnow, that in many places it was two feet deep. The weather has been extremely cold for ſome days paſt.

NEW-YORK, March 15.

To the PRINTER.

I Am informed that by the Bill lately propoſed and brought into our Houſe of Repreſentatives, for laying an additional duty of 4 pence per gallon on Wines, and 2 pence per gallon, on all Rum and other ſpiritous liquors ſold in this colony, the ſaid duties were to have been laid, and collected, by way of Exciſe. As to the Tax itſelf, it is not now my intention fully to conſider the propriety of it, only that it would have been a Tax upon, and conſequently a diſcouragement to, our own manufactory; and that it would probably have brought into the treaſury a large ſum, which might have been hereafter appropriated (as in Ireland) to uſes very defferent from thoſe original propoſed. The riches, ſtrength and ſecurity of a nation, conſiſts in the number, opulence, and content of its inhabitants; not in the ſums depoſited in its treaſury,—the diſpoſal of which, being generally too much under the influence of the executive powers of government, are more frequently made the means of the deſtruction than ſecurity to national freedom and happineſs. Beſides, that to make the people duly attentive to the propriety of the diſpoſal of public money, it ſeems neceſſary that they ſhould immediatly feel the raiſing of it; for ſuch is the natural indolence of mankind, that they will in general, give themſelves but little concern how the money already raiſed is diſpoſed of: They do not conſider it as any property of theirs, they expect no advantage from it, and are careleſs of its application. Such an unappropriated fund in Ireland, has been the grand ſource of curruption there, which has bribed a few of the inhabitants to betray the deareſt intereſts of the reſt; and ſimilar cauſes here, will produce ſimilar effects.

But as to the mode of the Tax propoſed—an Exciſe—it has always been, and always will be particularly hateful and abhorrent to a free people.

The proceſs, it ſeems, is not conformable to the rules of, nor determinable by the common Judges of property. The diſtinguiſhing characteriſticks of Engliſh freedom, the ſecurity of perſon and property, are by exciſe acts aboliſhed and deſtroyed,—a man's houſe is no longer his caſtle, for it may be forced and entered at all hours by an exciſe officer at his pleaſure—Nor, in a diſpute with him, will the matter be left to the determination of a jury of equals.

Tis this that has made exciſe laws ſo odious in England, that the public reſentment had well near proved fatal to the chief promoters of them.

They are indeed extremely convenient to the deſigns of arbitrary power; and it is far from being improbable that the paſſing ſuch laws have been particularly recommended from home, to perſons of influence in the ſeveral colonies, as we find an attempt to introduce them has been made about the ſame time in Philadelphia and New-York.—Whether the attempt has ſucceeded or not in Philadelphia I have not heard; but I am extremely pleaſed to hear that our aſſembly have had virtue and prudence to reject the pernicious ſcheme, which, I believe will be no recommendation of the propoſers of it, to the future favours of their countrymen.

I ſend you herewith a Philadelphia paper of the 24th February, from which, if you will inſert in your paper, the queries on the exciſe bill propoſed to the aſſembly of that province, you will oblige many of your cuſtomers, particularly your's, &c. N. B.

Mr. GODDARD, Philadelphia, Feb. 24.

As we are very ignorant, and hear much noiſe made about an Exciſe Act, which is likely to paſs the Houſe, we requeſt that ſuch as can inform us, would, by your means, be ſo kind as to anſwer the following Queries, and they will greatly oblige their humble

AGRESTIS MULTITUDO.

Query 1. IF this Act ſhould in a few years be found to affect the liberties or property of the people, will we then have an Aſſembly that will repeal it?

2. If we ſhould have ſuch an Aſſembly, will the Governor who ſhall then rule over us, paſs ſaid repeal Bill into a law?

3. If both Governor and Aſſembly ſhould be ſo good, will the then ruling Monarch of Great-Britain confirm the ſame?

4. Does the clauſe about locks, doors, and cloſets mean, that any Magiſtrate ſhall have authority to grant to any officer the right of breaking any door, cloſet, or lock in any houſe, at any time of day or night, when ſuch officer ſhall pleaſe to entertain any ſuſpicion of any perſon?

5. And if ſuch power is given, can we keep ſaid officer from inſpecting ſuch writings, papers, or any other thing which may be laid up in ſuch places, if we pleaſe; or if ſaid officer chooſes to inſpect ſaid papers, &c. muſt he have the privilege of ſo doing in order to ſatisfy his doubts?

6. If this power be granted, can any future Junius keep from being detected if he ſhould happen to reſide in Pennſylvania?

7. Shall ſuch officers have authority to clap a ſeal on ſuch doors and cloſets as it may not be convenient for them to ſearch at preſent, without the owner having a right to break ſuch ſeals, until they (ſaid officers) ſhall pleaſe to find leiſure to open ſaid doors and cloſets?

8. Are they who are generally appointed to ſuch offices, men of ſuch uprightneſs and integrity as never to entertain ſuſpicions of the innocent; nor to jubject ſuch to the degrading offices of delivering up the keys of ſuch doors and cloſets as ſhall contain their moſt ſecret tranſactions, and their moſt valuable papers, to the inſpection of a man of whom they know no more than that he has entertained a ſuſpicion of them, and has declared ſo before a Magiſtrate?

9. Can he who entertains a ſuſpicion of my honeſty, be a fit perſon for me to commit my keys to?

10. Is this authority granted to Magiſtrates, of the nature of General Warrants, or is it worſe?

11. If this law be of the nature of ſuch acts as we have complained ſo much of, lately, where did it take it riſe? Is he a good man, and of well known integrity and love for the liberties of the people, and ſecurity of property, who firſt promoted it?

12. If, when we conſider the ſituation of Americanus.*

* [A noted piece under that ſignature univerſally aſcribed to Joſeph Galloway Eſq; in favour of the Stamp Act, publiſhed before its Repeal.] who would have entailed miſery and vaſſalage over this free country, we have not reaſon to think ourſelves indebted to him for bringing another monſter into the world?

NEW-YORK, March 19.

Wedneſday Night the 11th Inſt. departed this Life, at her Houſe in this City, in the 29th Year of her Age, Mrs. Suſanna Pintard, Wife of Mr. Lewis Pintard, of this Place, Merchant; a Lady of a moſt amiable Diſpoſition, much and juſtly lamented by all who had the Happineſs of her Acquaintance.

Tueſday ſe'nnight, as one John Crum, a free Negro, was croſſing over from Horne's Hook to Hallet's-Cove, in a ſmall Canoe, he accidentally fell overboard and was drowned.

Thurſday laſt his Excellency, in the Preſence of the Council and the General Aſſembly, of this Province, was pleaſed to give his Aſſent to the ſeven following Acts paſſed this Seſſion, the Titles of which are as follows, viz.

An Act to empower Juſtices of the Peace, Mayors, Recorders and Aldermen, to try Cauſes to the Value of Five Pounds, and under, and for ſuſpending an Act therein mentioned.

An Act to better aſcertain the Quality of Pot and Pearl Aſhes.

An Act to revive and continue an Act, entitled, An Act for raiſing and collecting the Arrears of Taxes, due to this Colony from the City and County of New York, with ſome Additions thereto.

An Act for the better laying out, regulating, and keeping in Repair common and public Highways and private Roads in the County of Dutcheſs.

An Act to raiſe £. 1000, in the Precincts of Goſhen and Cornwall, in the County of Orange, to build a Court Houſe in the Town of Goſhen, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

An Act to divide the Precinct of Newburgh, in the County of Ulſter, into two Precincts. And,

An Act to fix and aſcertain from whence the Mileage Fees of the reſpective Conſtables of the Manor of Cortlandt, in the County of Weſtcheſter, ſhall be computed.

A few Days ſince the Eyes of Catharine Kyſon, of this City, aged 72 Years, were couched by Doctor Sephen Little, of Portſmouth, New-Hampſhire, and inſtantly reſtored to Sight, which had been totally blind ſix Years;—alſo ſundry other Operations have of late been performed by the Doctor, with equal Succeſs, in this and the adjacent Towns.—We hear his Stay in this City will be about a Month from this Time.

On Monday arrived in 24 Days from Coracoa, the Sloop Hannah, Capt. Jacobus Wynkoop, who on the 29th Feb. Lat. 22, ſpoke a Sloop from St. Euſtatia bound for Turks-Iſland; and on the 10th Inſtant, Lat. 36, 46, with a New-England Sloop, 3 Weeks from Antigua, bound to Charles-Town, all well.

On Thurſday the 5th inſtant, it ſnow'd faſt and inceſſantly the whole day and great part of the morning and evening, attended with a high wind; ſo that the ſnow in general was very deep, and ſo much drifted in many places, that the roads were for ſome time impaſſable. It has ſnow'd every 2 or 3 days almoſt ever ſince, particularly on Thurſday laſt, when it ſnow'd faſt the whole day, and added to what had fallen before, made it the deepeſt ſnow that is remembered for many years paſt.

When the bad weather began, people in general were but ſlenderly provided with fire wood, which was ſo far exhauſted by the long continuance of the ſevere weather, whereby the boats were ſtopped from coming, that the price of nut wood roſe in a few days from 35s. to £.4, and oak from 28s. to £.3, per cord.

☞ The NEW LOTTS LOTTERY will be drawn on Monday next, the 23d Inſtant.

RICHARD NORRIS,
STAY-MAKER, from LONDON,
In Smith-Street, New-York, next Door to Mr. John Cruger's, late Mayor,

MAKES all sorts of stays and jumps, turn'd and plain, French hipt German jackets, after the newest fashion and on the most reasonable terms, any ladies uneasy in their shapes, he likewise fits without any incumbrance; young ladies and growing misses inclined to casts and risings in their hips, and shoulders, he likewise prevents, by methods approved of by the Society of stay-makers in London. He has had the honour of working for several ladies of distinction, both in England and in this city, with universal applause,——He engages his work as good as any done in London, for neatness, true sitting, shape and fashion. 21—

He returns his sincere thanks to all his customers, and hopes their good word will not be wanting to his further promotion: Those ladies that reside in the country, by sending their measures, may be supplied at the shortest notice.

To be sold, at public Vendue,

The 6th Day of April next or at private Sale any Time before,

THE place of Peter Bertine, in New-Rochelle, consisting of twenty one acres of good land, eighteen acres of which is good English mowing ground of an excellent soil; a good dwelling house, out-houses, and good barn;—its situation and prospect beautiful to the sound, adjoins New-Rochelle creek, and Mr. Bleecker's grist-mills; a harbour or landing belonging to and adjoining said place, sufficient for a sloop of an hundred tons—about twenty rods from the New-Rochelle town landing, where vessels of considerable burden, go in and out at low water; a public road leading from the country back to said landing, running before the door; upon the whole, it is beautifully situated for any kind of public business, by land or water, or both: The beautiful situation and prospect up and down the sound, in which none exceeds it, would render it a most beautiful country seat for a gentleman; fish in the season plenty, to be catched from off their own dock, or landing, fowling, and many other conveniencies, too tedious to mention. Any person inclining to purchase the same, may agree upon reasonable Terms, by applying to the subscriber, living on the premises, who will give an indisputable title.

TO BE LET,

THE House, Garden, and the whole FARM, or only Part, as will best suit the Tenant, situate at Greenwich, one Mile and an half from Town; to be entered upon the 10th of April next. He may work the Garden as soon as the Spring opens. For Conditions, inquire of Mr. DAVID JOHNSTON, the present Tenant, or OLIVER DE LANCEY, at Greenwich. 19—

☞ THE Printing-Office, now kept on Hunter's-Quay, Rotton-Row, will at the 1st of May next, be removed to the House now occupied by Mrs. Joncour, nearly opposite the Coffee-House.

THE Printer requests all those who are indebted to him for advertisements, stationary, &c or above twelve months, for news-papers, that they will immediately discharge their accounts;—all but news-papers being ready money articles for which no trust ought to be given, nor ever was or is proposed to be given by the Printer hereof—unless to his constant customers, whose accounts are always readily paid when carried in. To customers of this sort, who are the only supporters of his paper, he returns his hearty thanks, assuring them that they are not the persons of whom he means to complain for neglect in payment of their accounts—The objects of his complaint are persons of very different characters, who, in order to keep a man out of his property are ingenious in finding out occasions of cavil and delay. They will examine the account—or they will call down and settle it, or they are not then at leisure, or they will pay in a few days, or a week, or a month hence or they think they have paid it, or part of it before, or they have just paid away all their money, or are not at home, or they have not had time to examine the account, or had forgot it or have lost the account and must have another, &c. and these and other excuses are often repeated over and over again, till the trouble and loss of time greatly exceeds the value of the debt demanded, which is generally small, and of long standing; and from such people, the payment is often made at last in the most niggardly and ungenerous manner, some trifling or unreasonable deduction being insisted on, and admitted merely to avoid contention: Thus the customary method of making up accounts for news-papers, being to charge to the end of the present quarter (then running when the account is carried in) tho' the account has been unpaid for several years, some have insisted upon a deduction of the few weeks that were charged of the unfinished quarter, which can never amount to so much as three shillings, and even if the remaining papers should not be sent, would not amount to more than the interest of the money after it became due for the papers.

Customers such as these, are really misfortunes to all concerned with them; It is no advantage to a Printer to publish advertisements on trust, or to have customers for trifling accounts, unless they take care to discharge them punctually, or at least upon being sent to once or twice. The business of printing is carried on at a great expence of ready money, the workmen's wages and all the materials are ready money articles, nor can it be supported without ready money or punctual payments——All therefore, who do not pay ready money, or who neglect to pay their accounts when carried in, are dead weights, who ought by every Printer to be thrown off for the common good—and in order to discriminate between those who are benefactors and those who are nuisances to the business.

To be sold at public Vendue, on Thursday the 2d Day of April next, on the Premises,

SEVEN lots of land at Tinton, near Shrewsberry New-Jersey.—Lot N° 1, is a farm of about 280 acres, 150 of which is cleared, and in good fence, and contains a great quantity of fine meadow land, (which yields the best hay) and much more may be made, as there is a fine swamp upon it, the wood of which will more than pay the expence of clearing.—There is on this farm a good bearing orchard, and a young one beginning to bear, a large dwelling house, newly covered and repaired, of two stories high, with four rooms on a floor, a large barn and stables, a large crib for Indian corn, and other out-houses: This is a convenient place for a trader, and has a good grist-mill adjoining it; the other six lots are wood land, from 50 to 80 acres in each lot, very handy to Shrewsberry, the inhabitants of which, and the adjacent country, buy their firewood. The conditions will be made known on the day of sale. Should any person incline to purchase the above farm, or any of the wood-lots before the day of sale, they may apply to the subscriber, on the premises, who will agree on very reasonable terms, and give an indisputable title for the same.

BY order of the honourable Daniel Horsmanden, Esq; chief Justice of the province of New-York; notice is hereby given, that on the application of George Folliott, one of the creditors of Joseph Anthony, late of Westchester county, yeoman, he did, in pursuance of an act of the governor, the council and the general assembly of the province of New-York, entitled, "An act to prevent frauds in debtors;" direct all the estate, real and personal, of the said Joseph Anthony, to be seized; and that unless he does return and discharge his debts, within three months next after this public notice given, all his estate that shall be so seized and taken, shall be sold for the satisfaction of his creditors. Dated the seventeenth day of February, 1772. 22 25

Robert G. Livingston,

Will dispose of the following Tracts of land very cheap, for ready Money; or if required, for one half thereof, Bonds will be taken, viz.

A Very pleasant Farm, containing 30 Acres of land, 4 Acres of it is a fine young Orchard, and 4 Acres fine Wood; it lies 4 Miles from Jamaica, near Forster's Meadow, on the left Hand of the Road to Hempstead. A very convenient House and Store-house, and another adjoining that, now occupied by Mr. Freck and Mr. Plowman, at the Ferry, on Long-Island, formerly by Christopher Codwise.

A Farm in Aimwell, in the County of Hunterdon, New-Jersey, formerly occupied by Martin Ryerson, containing 300 Acres of choice Land, about 20 or 30 Acres of it fine Meadow land, Wood-land sufficient for the Farm; a good sash'd House, 5 or 6 Rooms on the first Floor, Out-houses, a good Barn, very pleasantly situated. Enquire of James Hude, Esq; in New-Brunswick, Thomas Atkinson, and Thomas Lowrey, in said Aimwell, about 22 Miles from New-Brunswick.

Two very good improved Farms at Dutchess County, in Nine-Partners, about 24 Miles from the Landing at Poughkeepsie, each a sash'd House, two Stories high, 4 rooms on a Floor, with Barns, Out houses, and each a fine young Orchard of 200 Apple Trees, and 20 Acres of fine Meadow, each containing 263 Acres, and joining each other; very well situated for a Country Store, in the Heart of a Wheat Country, both occupied by Rotwell and Michael Hopkins, two Brothers.—

For further Particulars, enquire of Henry Livingston, Esq; at Poughkeepsie, and of the said Hopkins on the Spot.

A Farm in the Nine Partners, formerly occupied by Daniel Barber, containing 600 Acres; and a Farm of 82 and a half Acres, formerly occupied by Josiah Brown, in Nine-Partners; both Farms enquire of Henry Livingston, Esq; in Poughkeepsie. 25 28

And a House and Lot in the Town of Poughkeepsie.

Also two Lots, No. 17 and 32, each 539 acres, lying in the County of Albany, at a Place called Conydarage, in the Patent granted to David Schuyler, Nicholas Pietard, G. Stuyvesant, Ja. Livingston, J. Willet, and others, containing 43,000 Acres.

N. B. Any of the above Lands, if desired, will be sold in single Farms.
